

I am getting upset that every time an advance is made in technology of any type, government intervention creeps in to affect individual choice. If I want to get my information from a source I am willing to pay for, so be it. It's my decision.

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.

I also oppose HR 4026.

Let the free markets prevail.